

TEFL Org UK Director shortlisted for three awards at the 2017 IoD Scotland Awards

TEFL Org UK Managing Director, Jennifer Mackenzie-Hallwood, has been shortlisted for three awards at the 2017 Institute of Directors of Scotland Awards in the categories of 'Medium Business Director', 'Female Director' and 'Highlands and Islands Director'.

The awards celebrate Scotland's diverse business life by applauding those individuals whose creativity, leadership and responsible business practices have led to success for their organisation and the Scottish community.

Based in Inverness, TEFL Org UK is the largest and most accredited Teaching English as a Foreign Language course provider in the UK. 2016 saw TEFL Org UK achieve record sales, staffing growth, introduction of new Public Speaking Course in China, redevelopment of online courses and new classroom course locations throughout the UK.

Upon receiving the nominations, Jennifer said "I am both thrilled and genuinely amazed to have been shortlisted in three categories in the IoD Director of the Year Awards. To be named alongside such eminent business people and fellow entrepreneurs is a great honour and I wish the best of luck to my fellow nominees. TEFL Org UK has been very much a labour of love and a belief in both the amazing, life-changing experience we offer to our customers and in the fantastic team I am surrounded with who work hard to deliver a quality service. We are still a young company but have worked hard to become a viable, scalable and growing one that is proud to be based in the Highlands of Scotland."

Looking forward to 2017, TEFL Org UK continues its mission to inspire more people across the globe to have a life-enhancing, fun-filled, exciting and challenging experience teaching English abroad.
